The Spring National Fire Prevention Campaign Week March 1st -7th

When you go out, wear a mask, close the door, and take fire precautions. (National Unified Fire Prevention Slogan for 2022)

10 tips to protect your life for home fire safety (4 smart habits and 6 measures)

- (1) Don't ever smoke in bed, and do not allow others to do so.
- (2) Do not place flammable items around space heaters.
- (3) When using a stove, never leave the fire unattended.
- (4) Clean the dust off electrical outlets and unplug unnecessary plugs.

- (1) To prevent fires, use gas fan heaters and cooking stoves equipped with safety devices.
- (2) Test residential fire alarms regularly for early detection of fires, and replace them at least every 10 years.
- (3) To prevent the spread of fire, keep rooms neat and tidy, and use disaster-resistant bedding, clothing, and curtains.
- (4) Install fire extinguishers and learn how to use them in order to put out fires while they are still small.
- (5) Elderly and physically disabled persons should always be prepared with evacuation routes and evacuation methods.
- (6) Participate in fire and disaster prevention drills and conduct community-wide fire prevention measures by collaborating with neighbors.
