Paying National Pension premiums via Direct Debit is highly recommended for the highest discount.

Direct Withdrawal/Debit ensures premiums are automatically withdrawn, preventing missed payments. Additionally, the early payment discount system offers a ¥60 monthly discount, when you pay at the end of the current month instead of paying at the end of the following month via Direct Withdrawal/Debit. There are also 3 types of advance payment systems. This gives you a discount:

- ① 6 months advance payment (¥1,190 discount)
- ② 1 fiscal year advance payment (¥4,400 discount)
- ③ 2 fiscal years advance payment (¥17,010 discount)

*Those discount amounts are for the fiscal year of 2025.

Application: Bring documents confirming your Basic Pension Number, your bankbook or cash card, and your registered bank seal to the financial institution or pension office where you wish to set up direct withdrawal/debit.

Please note:

- * If you choose advance payment as your payment method, you can apply even in the middle of the year.
- * If you wish to start the advance payment method in April, the application deadline will be at the end of February.
- * Advance payments can also be made in cash or by credit card, but the discount amount will be less than with direct withdrawal/debit.

* For details, please check the information available via the code. →
